

Maira Utebaliyeva

2 Langdon Street, Madison, WI 53703
(608) 509-3469, utebaliyeva@wisc.edu

Objective

Seeking a GIS internship position that will enable me to gain experience working on real world projects

Education

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Bachelor of Science, expected graduation date – May, 2014
Major: Cartography and Geographic Information Systems
Human Geography

Strengths

Good educational background
Ability to easily adapt in new environments
Excellent communication skills

Work experience

September, 2011-December, 2012

Site location project
University of Wisconsin-Madison
Student

-Gained experience on data input, data management, data analysis.

June, 2011-August, 2011

Restaurant “Hugo’s”
1 Smagulova street, Atyrau, Kazakhstan
Waitress

-Provided customer service
-Developed strong communicational skills

Professional activities

12-16, April, 2011

Association of American Geographers Annual Meeting
-Attended 20 presentations in different areas of geography by leading scholars and experts

Overview of Accomplishments

April, 2009

International Scholarship of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan

April, 2007

Future Leaders Exchange Program Finalist

Skills

MS Office, ArcGIS, Adobe Illustrator, Python programming language

Languages

Kazakh language (native), Russian language (fluent), English language (fluent), Italian language (intermediate)